United Way in Ottawa County Introduces “Coffee with a Banker”

WHO: Participating coffee shops: Bistro 163, Evolve Riverfront Café, Ignite Coffee & Tea Co., R Coffee Corner and Victory Coffee.

Participating banks: Civista Bank, Commodore Perry Federal Credit Union, Croghan Colonial Bank, First Federal Bank, First Federal Savings of Lorain, First National Bank of Bellevue, Huntington Bank, Key Bank, Marblehead Bank, US Bank, Wood Forest Bank.

WHAT: United Way in Ottawa County is pleased to announce a special opportunity for residents / surrounding residents of Marblehead, Port Clinton, Oak Harbor and Genoa: “Coffee with a Banker.”

For the first Tuesday of every month, from 9:00-11:00 a.m., a local banker will be available at the coffee shops above, offering free financial coaching for residents. Relevant topics to discuss with a banker include how to build credit, debt relief, student loan relief, applying for a mortgage, back-taxes, bankruptcy and building your savings.

The mission of United Way is to fight for the health, education and financial stability of every person in Ottawa County. “Coffee with a Banker” provides a casual setting for community members to receive free financial insight to strengthen their overall financial security. This opportunity is made possible by United Way’s “Circle of Influence,” which is an ongoing convening of Ottawa County community members who identify programming solutions to local health and human service needs.
