United Way Seeks Community Support for “A United Thanksgiving”

WHO: 400+ meal attendees
Numerous volunteers
Stacy Maple, Area Director, United Way in Ottawa County

WHAT: On Thanksgiving Day, United Way in Ottawa County (UWOC,) along with local volunteers, will organize a community-wide Thanksgiving Day meal for those in need.

This is the 28th year of the gathering being hosted in Port Clinton and the first it will be organized by UWOC.

Currently, UWOC is asking community members to donate ready-to-eat pies, raw turkeys or make monetary donations for the event. There are also volunteer opportunities to help prepare the meal the day before (11/27) or serve the day-of (11/28.)

UWOC also welcomes local businesses to donate bulk side dishes and / or assist with the transportation of items.

To donate or sign up to supply a ready-to-eat item for “A United Thanksgiving,” call UWOC’s office at 419-734-6645.

WHEN: Thursday, November 28, 2019
11:30 a.m. – 2:00 p.m.

WHERE: Trinity United Methodist Church
135 Adams St.
Port Clinton, OH, 43452
