United Way 2-1-1 Hosts Virtual “Get Connected” Training

WHO: United Way 2-1-1, United Way of Greater Toledo

WHAT: Countless community members are still feeling the deep economic effects of COVID-19. Given this, United Way staff will be conducting a free, online 2-1-1 “Get Connected” training, which showcases the many functionalities of United Way 2-1-1 and its ability to help individuals locate applicable health and human services, based on their current needs. This presentation is geared-towards health and human service providers, human resources professionals, community-based organization employees, nonprofits, etc.

PLEASE NOTE: Many reporters, editors and station / newsroom employees often receive calls and inquiries from those seeking help in the community. We would highly encourage our news partners to join this webinar, not for coverage, but to simply learn about this important resource. All are welcome to attend.

WHEN: Noon to 1:00 p.m.
June 11, 2020

HOW: Visit “United Way of Greater Toledo” on Facebook and click the “events” tab. There you will see our “Get Connected” virtual training, which contains the appropriate links.
